Colours simply redefines the modern workplace design. A wide array of screen is available, thus giving businesses an opportunity to choose which best suits their employees' unique needs. Fabric-magnetic screens and plain fabric screens can be used as notice boards, whiteboards or glass boards perfect for note taking. Of course, do not forget to choose what will be your favourite Colour.

Teamwork, concentration, and communication are promoted and nurtured by Featherlite new Colour workstations. Colour designs adhere to three principles – clarity, community, and ingenuity.

Meticulously engineered, but dramatically simple. Using high pressure aluminium die-casting and weldless technology, Colour pushes the edge of design and engineering.

Aesthetics

Aesthetics is specially given attention. It is also worth to note that each design features an almost invisible hardware with smooth aesthetic.

Simplicity

Featherlite also believes that simplicity is indeed beauty. With separate raceways for data and electrical cables, the technology management is absolutely simple and efficient. Flip-up ports are also included to reduce the hassle and bring accessibility to the workforce's fingertips.

Practicality

Aesthetic and simplicity is combined without forgetting its practicality. Colour systems can be shipped in any corner of the globe.
